Want a voice at the library?

Want to help plan library events?

Want to earn community service hours?

JOIN NAG AT PLYMOUTH PUBLIC LIBRARY

NAG is a small group of teens in grades 7-12 who assist in the library's YA department (Also known as The Nook). We help at Nook programs, create displays and book lists for The Nook, suggest titles for addition to the YA collection, and plan/run events for the Youth Services Department.

DETAILS

- NAG members receive community service hours for meetings and events attended.
- Meetings are once a month on Monday evenings, but members are asked to attend other weekdays after school and must volunteer for one Major Library Event per school year.
- The NAG 'year' runs September through May.
- NAG membership is exclusive, and can be revoked if the member does not show up for event volunteer hours or misses more than two regular meetings per semester unexcused.
